

RUNWAY INSPIRATION BY ANUSHA'S

About the Event:

- The concept of the Fashion Show is to invite Goa's Who's who and mark the event as a high profile event. Along with these guests, we will also be inviting celebrity guests. This platform is giving the special children an opportunity to walk the fashion ramp for the first time in India alongside youngsters, professional models and celebrities. I Anusha Shaikh, as a designer for the show will be designing 70 garments, where the categories include 'the kids range', 'Indo westerns' and 'Ethnics'.
- The event will be a ticketed event, dated 21st JANUARY 2018. The proceedings of the event will be donated for charity towards this special children as mentioned above. We have GTDC associating with us for the event, playing a major host partner role. This event shall be a success with all of us uniting to mark a special place in our society for these physically and mentally challenged children.
- Of the three sequences, the first sequence will showcase the kids range is a set of 15 attires. For this sequence, we will have a few special children walk the ramp in this age category.
- The second sequence will exhibit indo western outfits each given an Indian traditional twist.
- The last sequence will showcase traditional Indian outfits including the bridal range which will have professional models walking the ramp.
