

CARMEL COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE, NUVEM-GOA

M.A. (PSYCHOLOGY) EXAMINATION, JANUARY 2021

PLO 304: PALLIATIVE CARE

Duration: 2 hours

Total marks: 40

Instructions: 1) Read each question carefully.

2) Write the correct question number.

3) Each question carries 10 marks.

Q.NO.I)

A) Effective, patient-centered communication is key to quality palliative care. Good communication is both an ethical imperative, necessary for informed consent and effective patient engagement, and a means to avoid errors, improve quality, save money and achieve better health outcomes." Elucidate.

OR

B) Define ethics. Discuss the various legal and ethical principles encountered in palliative care settings.

Q.NO.II)

A) Discuss the interventions that can be used with cancer patients in palliative care settings.

OR

B) What are the issues that affect people with learning disabilities at the end of their life? Discuss the interventions that would help them.

Q.NO.III)

A) "In-depth knowledge of the course and prognosis of the neurological diseases is indispensable when discussing treatment options with the patients families."

Elucidate.

OR

B) Discuss the palliative care needs of adults with AIDS.

Q.NO.IV)

A) "Occupational therapy aims to enhance the patient's and their carer's quality of life through taking part in activities or occupations that are important and valued by them." Elucidate.

OR

B) Discuss the role of a physiotherapist in the palliative care setting.