

Program Outcome – BA in English.

A student graduating from the Department of English of Carmel College for Women should be equipped with Integrated Skills in English. (ISE). She should be able to think critically, communicate effectively across disciplines, and express herself clearly. The department endeavours to inculcate this through non-verbal and verbal; written and oral communication skills in English. She should be trained in the communicative and soft skills required for jobs in the media, performance arts, journalism, translation, front office, administrative, and allied areas.

On graduation, our students should be ready to undertake post-graduate studies in English, the BEd program or job oriented courses anywhere in the country or abroad where the medium of instruction is English.
