

The Department of History

“The more you know about the past, the more prepared you are for the future” – Theodore Roosevelt.

The objective of the Department is to encourage the learning of history as it takes us back to our roots, tradition and culture and helps us to avoid the mistakes of our past and plan for the future.

The Department is guided by a qualified and dedicated faculty, with a blend of high experience and dynamism. The Department of History has organized a number of activities ranging from National- level seminars, workshops, inter-college events, study tours and observing days of national importance.

A very innovative activity of the Department is the founding of a Civic Club in collaboration with MARG, to cultivate in our students a sense of civic consciousness. Yet another highlight of the Department, is the commencement of a certificate course History through Heritage to instil in our students a love for heritage and its preservation.

The Department has seen outstanding results at the Third Year level, with students topping in the subject and being awarded the prestigious Peter Alvares Award.

History offers several career opportunities in the areas of Postgraduate Studies in History, Archaeology, Musicology, Latin American Studies, Research leading to Ph.D, Competitive Exams like I.A.S, U.P.S.C, G.P.S.C, Law, Journalism, Teaching , Police Services, Management Studies, Travel and Tourism and Politics.
