

Department of Psychology

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

The Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) outline the key competencies and skills that students are expected to acquire upon successful completion of the programme. These outcomes reflect the department's commitment to fostering conceptual clarity, practical application, critical thinking, and research-oriented learning in psychology.

The following are the Programme Specific Outcomes:

- PSO 1: Explain and validate psychological theories and concepts effectively.
- PSO 2: Use psychological principles in applied situations and practice.
- PSO 3: Critically evaluate and analyse psychological literature and empirical evidence.
- PSO 4: Demonstrate research skills, including research methods and experimental designs, and understand ethical principles in psychological research and practice.
