responsible citizen.

About “We the People Club”

We the People Club is an initiative of the Department of Political Science aimed at bridging the gap between classroom learning and real-world civic engagement. The club provides students with opportunities to explore constitutional values, democratic processes, and contemporary political and social issues through interactive and participatory activities. The club encourages students to think critically, speak confidently, and act responsibly as informed citizens.

Our Vision

To create a generation of politically aware, socially responsible, and ethically conscious citizens.

Objectives

- To promote awareness of constitutional values, democratic ethics, and civic responsibilities
- To foster leadership skills and civic consciousness among students
- To integrate classroom learning with co-curricular civic education
- To encourage critical thinking and informed discussion on political, social, and ethical issues
- To provide a platform for student expression through debates, workshops, and outreach activities

Our Mission:

To bridge the gap between classroom learning and real-world civic engagement through active participation, collaboration, and innovation.
